Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Earth is gone and humankind is scattered across the stars scratching to survive. On a small planet of wonder in the middle of the unknown, one man lives in blissful hermitage in a Valley of staggering beauty. Long having despaired of humanity, he lives and works alone with a complicated array of circuitry implanted in his brain and recording everything he thinks, feels and experiences. But something is very, very wrong. He is falling apart. But why? What is the cause? It is something outside of him or within? His only chance to answer these questions and to find a cure is to leave the comfort of his home Valley and take the long arduous journey through a beautiful but terrifying terrain to the equally great horror of Town. It is there that one small group of humanity resides. It is there that he will find hope of help within the hell of other people. But to reach Town he must first pass numerous unusual but majestic waterfalls up to and under a weird mountain. First he must cross a treacherous expanse of grassland, tundra and desert where the normal rules of time and space can have little meaning. First he must pass other ineffable mysteries and travel through a deep, dark otherworld forest where peril hides behind every tree. It is a journey across a world where everything is against him: the seasons are against him, the land is against him, Nature is against him. It often seems that even his own self is against him. And to top it all off, there is something out there. It s a race against time, and...
